

I am writing in support of K-Love. As a resident of this community K-Love radio is very helpful to me and our community. It would be a great loss if K-Love was displaced by a LPFM broadcaster providing different programming. K-Love plays good wholesome music that the entire family can listen too, and upholds family values we need in the United States. Thank you. Carl L. Olsen